AECAPELIN memo, dtd 4 Apr 1955, file in AECANDIOT 240

He states: "In reply to your verbal request concerning my connections with the deceased General GLASENAP, I point out that I did not know him personally nor did I ever have any direct or indirect relationship with him. GLASENAP was in contact with Henrik von PRAHL, a monarchist and a German of Russian ~~xxx~~ descent who often visited GLASENAP. These contacts were extended into espionage activities. PRAHL was very well oriented concerning the Russian emigration; however, his information was obtained from monarchist sources and therefore was not objective. Von PRAHL was greatly saddened by GLASENAP's death in 1951. He attended the funeral and for several days after wore ~~his~~ black in mourning. I was never interested in the person nor in the activities of GLASENAP."
